

PRESS RELEASE

Air University Public Affairs
Maxwell AFB Alabama
(334) 953-2014
www.maxwell.af.mil/airshow

May 21, 2004
Release # 04-05-20

Dazzling sky and ground events coming to Maxwell June 5-6

MAXWELL AIR FORCE BASE, Ala. – Maxwell/Gunter AFB is hosting a two-day air show June 5-6 from 9 a.m.- 5 p.m with opening ceremonies begin at eleven each day. The public is invited to enjoy an unforgettable air show commemorating the 60th anniversary of D-Day. Maxwell AFB welcomes and appreciates media coverage of the base's upcoming air show. We look forward to working with you and are prepared to schedule media opportunities to interview air show planners or air show participants during the air show or for pre-coverage.

The 'Wings of Victory 2004' air show will feature world-famous U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds performing spectacular aerial maneuvers performed at blinding speeds in the F-16 Fighting Falcon.

The U.S. Army Golden Knights Parachute Team will perform precision aerial maneuvers while falling to the earth at speeds reaching 120 miles per hour.

Spectators will be treated to high performance demonstrations by military and civilian aircraft. The show includes children's attractions, autographs, music, and food. There is no charge for entry to the air show grounds. No coolers or pets please. Come out June 5-6 to the Maxwell AFB air show for fun, food and free family entertainment. For more information on the air show visit www.maxwell.af.mil/airshow.

Media interested in covering the air show should register at www.maxwell.af.mil/airshow/media or contact Lt. Tynisha Jones at the public affairs office, 953-2826 to coordinate coverage.